This draft overview is designed to give you an idea of the time commitment required to participating in the Policy Hackathon. When your registration is confirmed, you will be provided a detailed schedule.

+Time is subject to change slightly at the discretion of the organizers and presenters.
*Attendance mandatory for these sessions. Aside from the planned PD sessions and the deadline for ECM, all other times in the schedule (i.e. for your team to connect with your coach; for your team to work on your solution; for you to tend to regular duties) is all negotiable and you and your team have the autonomy to schedule meetings as you need them to be an effective team.
