

Did you know that as an employee of the Public Service, you have access to the Conference Board of Canada's e-library?

Conferenceboard.ca/login

conferenceboard.ca/Login

The Conference Board of Canada

Focus Areas Services Insights About Us

Welcome!

If you already have an e-Library account, please sign-in. If this is your first visit to the e-Library, please create a new account.

Sign In

Work Email Address

Password

Forgot your password?

Remember me

Sign In for Schools and Media

- University or college students, staff or faculty members, click here.
- Members of the media, click here.

About the e-Library

All Conference Board research documents from 1998 are available exclusively on this web site. There is no charge to register for the e-Library.

*Our research documents are sold individually or through an annual subscription to one of our flexible e-Library services. If your organization has subscribed to a e-Library service, you will be able to download the series of documents included in the service at no charge. The Conference Board of Canada has also produced a significant number of Public Policy research documents; this research has been funded by our members or other organizations and is available to all registrants at no charge.

Create a New Account

Take a moment to create a free e-Library account and you'll be able to:

- access Conference Board research*
- manage your profile
- Need help? Contact us.

Conference Board.ca

Simply click on “create an account” and fill out the information asked to create a new account (with Organization: Government of Prince Edward Island)

You can choose topics that you are interested in based on your work, and you will receive access to over thousands of valuable reports, webinars, and presentations. Note: once the webinars are over, you can receive a recorded version for free!

Instructions:

- Every employee of the PEI Civil Service can access The Conference Board of Canada e-library, 24 x 7, from any computer
- There is no charge to employees or departments. It is funded by the Finance Department, Economics Statistics and Federal Fiscal Relations Division
- Use your gov.pe.ca email to set up an e-learning library account
- To create an account, visit <https://www.conferenceboard.ca/Login>
- If you should encounter any technical problems accessing the e-Library site, please contact elibrary@conferenceboard.ca.
- If you have a question regarding your e-Library service or would like a brief on-line demo of the site for you or your team, please contact Ann-Marie Martello, at martello@conferenceboard.ca or 613-526-3090, Ext. 230.

Trending Insights

Global trade

Global trade affects the Canadian economy. Learn how, and how to respond effectively.

AI and Robotics

Succeed in a rapidly changing technological landscape with the latest Canadian research on emerging technologies, AI, cyber threats, and security.

Canadian cities

Access economic forecasts across 20 Canadian metropolitan cities, with more than 100 indicators for each, from employment to provincial economic growth.

Health

Employee wellness

Climate change

Future of work

Leadership